NEW COLLECTIONS – SEPTEMBER 2021

MARACANDA & TURFAN

MARACANDA

An exotic collection of printed and embroidered fabrics takes inspiration from the textiles of the ancient Silk Route. The designs evoke the rich and varied cultures and crafts to be found in the cities along the length of the Great Silk Road, Maracanda is the ancient name for Samarkand, the jewel of Uzbekistan and the most famous of the Silk Road cities.

TURFAN

A collection of versatile weaves including sumptuous velvets, chenilles and small-scale patterned fabrics. The colours from Nina's characteristic palette include aqua, green, gold, teal, coral and red, as well as useful neutral shades.

SAMARRA

Nina Campbell's colour palette is continuously evolving. This season colour combinations are inspired by those found in ancient crafts, such as Persian rugs and carpets, and Iznik pottery.

Mineral tones of bronze, burnished gold and antique silver are enlivened with ochres and fresh greens. Blues are interjected with russet, tan, powder blue and olive, and chocolate grounds are enriched with terracotta and ochre.
